OLD MONTRÉAL

CAP DIAMANT AND CITADELLE | Your Tour Director will lead you on a walk of the cliffs of Cap Diamant, first settled by French explorer Jacques Cartier. The cliffs are named for the iron pyrite and quartz crystals present at the site, which were originally mistaken for gold and precious stones, thus the name "Cape Diamond." See the Citadelle, a fortress that dates back to 1820. Still garrisoned today, the fort is built in the shape of a four-pointed polygon in the historic neighbourhood of Québec City, which became a UNESCO World Heritage Site in 1985.

OTTAWA | A visit to Ottawa is essential to understanding Canada. Here you can walk the halls of power where decisions that shape our country are made, and walk through our history in some of the nation's best museums. The imaginative Museum of Civilization, the renowned Canadian War Museum, the stunning National Art Gallery and the engaging Science and Technology Museum bring Canada's past and future into clear focus. Parliament Hill, Rideau Hall, the Supreme Court, ByWard Market and Rideau Canal are just some of the "must-sees" in Canada's capital.

MONTRÉAL | It's no wonder Montréal is a favourite of visitors from around the world – the cosmopolitan metropolis serves up a surprising menu of sights and delights. Enjoy the flavour of Europe in Old Montréal, a sampling of a tropical rainforest in the Biodome, the lingering scent of history in elaborate buildings and cathedrals, and of course, a taste of French gastronomy. Take in the dramatic views from the Olympic Park Tower Observatory and the top of Mount Royal, and feel the beat of joie de vivre on the streets.
